

KEITH A. GREENAWAY, GNEMSDC
Managing Director, MBE Advisory Group

Keith A. Greenaway is a Mergers and Acquisitions specialist and entrepreneur who has leveraged hard-earned legal expertise in corporate finance and mergers and acquisitions to cultivate competencies that today are essential in advising SMEs in growth strategies. Over the course of his twenty-year legal and business career, Keith has been exposed to a broad range of sectors and has served at the fulcrum of the conclusion of several domestic and cross-border transactions. Over the arc of his career starting with his formative days as a broker-assistant at Lehman Brothers through his years at large law firms in New York and Boston, Keith has accumulated an experiential knowledge base of timeless principles, methods, and tactics that have served exponential corporate growth historically and continues to serve as the bedrock for unleashing full business and human potential. He is a true disciple of the philosophy of essential role of strategic plans, strategic partnerships, joint ventures and acquisitions as indispensable components to meaningful SME growth. Keith is an alumni of Georgetown University (Juris Doctor) and Boston College (B.A.) where he studied Political Science and Philosophy.
