

Tracy Fraatz

Manager of Administration

Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston

Since joining Federal Home Loan Bank of Boston (FHLBank Boston) 30 years ago, Tracy Fraatz has had various roles, giving her a unique and in-depth insight into the inner workings of the Bank's business. In her current position, Tracy is responsible for facility management, office services and support, vendor management, and workspace planning and strategy.

For more than 10 years, Tracy has also held a key role in FHLBank Boston's Supplier Diversity Program, with an eye toward expanding the Bank's network of vendors that are owned and operated by women, minorities, and veterans. Tracy has been instrumental in developing the program and continues to be a champion of supplier diversity within the organization.
