

Anthony A. Samuels is the founder of DRB Facility Services and has been President/CEO since its inception in 1993. The company has grown steadily under his leadership. Today he oversees a company that employs over 600 team members and is a recognized leader in the business community. Mr. Samuels has completed courses at the University of Massachusetts and the Tuck School at Dartmouth College. Mr. Samuels is a philanthropist, serves on numerous non-profit boards, and is a mentor to other business owners and youth in several local communities.