

Eric Hardy, CEO

Eric Hardy is a chief executive officer and entrepreneur within the technology, healthcare, banking, automotive, and engineering industries. As an expert in strategy and development, Eric has helped build various companies and has received numerous awards including, supplier of the year, Best & Brightest Places to Work, Inc. 5000 Fastest Growing Companies, and Black Enterprise 100.

Eric is the President and CEO of w3r Consulting, an Information Technology Consulting firm that offers portfolio management, cloud computing, infrastructure, business intelligence, and analytic services. Eric founded the company in 1995 and has been able to develop the startup into the $50M company that it is today.

Eric serves on the Michigan Minority Supplier Development Council Board of Directors, University of Michigan Dearborn's National Advisory Council, and the Hospital & Health Network and Community Health boards of Henry Ford Health System; supports DAPCEP, ITSMF, and is a board member for the National Business League. Eric serves as the IT industry sector chair for the MMSDC and has served in various capacities around IT and technology for the Ohio Minority Supplier Development Council (OMSDC).

